

Product

- » Australian Made
- » Environmentally friendly and excellent value for money because they are a high quality, long lasting product.
- » Robust – bullet proof (Used in commercial applications)
- » Available in two finishes. Stainless Steel and Powder Coated. Powder coated models are available in claret and black.
- » Available in three plate sizes:
 - » 700mm, 850mm and 1150mm wide x 520mm deep.
 - » Choice of different hotplates. You can choose 5mm, 10mm or 20mm mild steel plate or 10mm stainless steel plates.
- » All Heatlie barbecues have the unique ribbon burner system.
- » 10 year warranty for domestic use barbecues and 1 year warranty for commercial use.
- » Available in LPG or Natural Gas
- » Accessories available

Performance

- » The unique ribbon burner system and steel hotplate give an even heat distribution for superb cooking performance.
- » They are easy to clean. Just run a scraper over the hotplate. No fuss and ready to use again.
- » No unwanted or unused features.
- » Simple to use. Lights easily with the piezo ignition and is ready to cook on in minutes.
- » Safe to use. Oil can't drip onto burners causing flare ups.

Heatlie 700
Shown with warming drawer and lid.

Heatlie 850
Shown with end tables, warming drawer, splash back and lid.

Heatlie 1150
Shown with end tables, warming drawer, splash back and lid.

Perfect for clubs of all types, schools and domestic use.

Accessories

- » Warming drawer to keep food warm once it has been cooked.
- » End Table to give you extra serving space
- » Lid to protect the hotplate when not in use and also acts as a windshield when cooking.
- » Drain Extension available when cooking for crowds or extended times.
- » Barbecue shelf for under barbecue storage.
- » Vinyl covers to protect the barbecue when not in use.
- » Optional Flame protection device available which cuts off the gas supply if accidentally extinguished.

